

Did you know?

Countless strays struggle to survive every year, while hundreds get euthanized due to full capacity in shelters.

The government provides free services for spaying and neutering pets, promoting responsible ownership, and to avoid unwanted litters.

Please consider spaying your furbabies to save countless strays that are in dire need of help.